Overview

The American Journal of Rhinology and Allergy is directed to the medical specialties which focus primarily on nasal and sinus disorders: Otolaryngology, Allergy, and Plastic Surgery. The AJR&A publishes peer reviewed original articles, clinical trials, review articles and abstracts of the world's most significant research publications. The goal of this publication is to provide new information which is of special interest to the above three specialties and which shall contribute to improvement in the quality of patient care for nasal and sinus disorders.
